News From Your Town Government

Winter/Spring 2016

One Hundred Years Ago

*One Hundred Years Ago—
From the Enterprise,
February - March, 1916.*

February gets off to a bang, literally, with an earthquake near midnight on the 2nd. In Altamont and nearby, a distant blasting sound is heard. In Schenectady, police are called in fear that there has been an explosion at the GE plant. No damage is reported. Those who wanted to talk about it by telephone may have followed the advice of New York Telephone to "speak directly into the transmitter [mouthpiece] to best be heard."

In Reidsville, the "ice men" have returned from cutting ice and are seeking other employment, and "La grippe" is there, in East Berne, and in Knox where nearly every family has the "grip." In mid-February, Berne reports a "very severe" cold wave with temperatures down to -12F and other places down to -24F, but the sleighing is good and the Berne Church nets $12 from its clam chowder supper. It's a good time for hot percolator coffee from Lainhart's in Altamont at 30 cents a pound and for laying in dry hardwood, available from John Van Auken at $6.50 a cord.

Cold weather means eating food for fuel, and the NYS Health Department says the average daily diet should contain about 2500 calories. A study of a large restaurant chain in New York City showed that for about 55 cents a day, a customer could get those calories with sufficient protein content, but if spending less than 50 cents, too many of the calories would have to come from desserts.

Cold weather continues into March, and Reidsville reports that several locals are working on the ice. Thompson's Lake says that Mrs. Eli Secor is hosting a quilting bee and March "did not come in very lamb-like" but with a heavy blizzard instead: three days of wind, drifting and impassible roads. East Berne reports 6-12 inches of snow and mailmen and stag-ers are unable to make their rounds.

FROM THE SUPERVISOR

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who make Berne such a wonderful place to live: our firefighters and rescue squad members who keep us safe; our countless volunteers who give of their time for many different projects such as our Senior Meal Program; Community Caregivers; our local church goers for programs such as No One Eats Alone and the community thrift shop; Friends of the Library; the Town of Berne employees (who do such a wonderful job with our parks, roads and buildings); and members of our appointed boards.

New Addition at the Berne Town Park

I would also like to thank the Town Hall staff, the Library staff and the Town Board for all their hard work as well. Everyone working together as a team makes Berne such a wonderful community. Above is a picture of our nearly completed Town Park pavilion which was built mostly by Town work forces. Final touches should be done by spring and it will be ready to use soon after! The pavilion will offer a summer kitchen and full handicapped accessible bathrooms. Thank you, Randy, and all the Highway guys for all the great work!

If you would like to be involved in a project or have an interest in helping out our Town, or just have an idea you would like to share, please call or stop by my office. Some of our best ideas come from our residents!

-Kevin Crozier

Rural Broadband Update

In cooperation with Assemblyman Santabarbara, Senator Amadore and our County Executive Dan McCoy, we are working on a wireless broadband project that could provide wireless internet to most residents in the Hilltowns. Working with our elected officials in Albany, we can now make this a reality. This broadband project is important to many residents and I will work along with the Town Board to see that this gets done.

Thompson's Lake adds that with the heavy snow and drifted roads, "we are almost isolated." But finally Berne announces, in the March 31st issue, "we are all glad to welcome the robin."

"La Grippe" is French for "influenza" and was used by Hilltown correspondents for a number of years. This 1916 Hilltown flu, first reported in the country in December of 1915, may or may not have been the precursor of the flu pandemic of 1918-1920. That virus killed at least 20 million people world-wide. (Centers for Disease Control, Journal of Emerging Infectious Diseases, v. 12, no. 1, Jan. 2006. An excellent and sobering book about the great pandemic is The Great Influenza by John Barry.)

Fox Creek Market to Open its Doors Again

-According to new owner Ardi Cecunjanin, the business will soon be offering breakfast, lunch and dinner - to include a variety of Italian favorites, pizza and subs. Home essentials, grocery items and local and organic produce will also be offered.

Cecunjanin stated, "We look forward to seeing and meeting everyone at the grand opening and serving the community! Everyone has been so kind in welcoming us during the remodeling and we can't wait to get started!"

WINTERFEST 2016

PRAY FOR SNOW!! Our first Winterfest will be held February, 27th at the Game Farm Road Property. A day of winter fun is planned for all ages!

The Capital Region Nordic Alliance, in conjunction with the Game Farm Road Board, will host a 5k snowshoe race. Registration begins at 9:00 a.m. with the race to start at 10:00 a.m. All registered runners will receive a mug.

Just walking the trail and taking in the view from the property is a great experience in itself.

There will be ice skating on the pond and sledding on the hill (hopefully!). A snow-sculpture contest for the artists in the area is being planned along with an Animal Presentation with Wildlife Rehabilitator Kelly Martin at noon and 2 p.m. in the Retreat House. The Retreat House will also be available as a warming hut and the Chuck Wagon Food Truck will be there to satisfy your hunger. Rather be outdoors? You can always warm yourself by the bonfire!

Electronic Recycling In a Changing Market

- As you may know, electronic recycling is a very changing market. On Jan. 1st, Maven, the company who used to pick up our electronics, dropped most towns in Albany County with no advanced notice. This left us with no choice but to stop taking electronics.

We have found a new vendor who will take our electronics at no charge to the Town. Last year, the Town recycled 27,000 lbs. of electronics.

Thank you Scott Green, our Recycling Coordinator, for keeping us up to date on recycling issues.

Please remember that a permit is required for Town residents who choose to use the transfer station. One can be picked up at Town Hall at no cost. Permits are needed to keep non-residents from tipping in our station and costing us all a lot more money.

Just a side note: In 2015, it cost the same to run the transfer station as it did in 1998. Recycling makes cents $$$!

Highway Happenings

As of January 25th, 2016, we have used approximately 75 ton of salt and 150 ton of material. We are in very good shape so far. At this time last year we were well over 150 ton of salt and 500 ton of material.

Think spring! Our new plow trucks showed up in August and we have been very lucky with the weather. We have added six more storage bays for vehicles to keep them dry. We also have a new loader coming in February to replace the 1999 well-used one. Please call with any concerns or questions.

-Randy Bashwinger 573-3002

Just want to say Thank You to the Berne-Knox-Westerlo Pre-K class for having us. We took equipment to the school and had both the morning and afternoon classes as our guests. The best thing was seeing the smiles of the young children as we showed them the trucks. A great day had by all! - Randy

Berne Public Library—Read All About It

The Library Board started 2016 with a goodbye to two trustees who worked very hard to implement the move of the library to its current location. Thank you to Marsha Descartes for her fifteen years of service and Nancy Lendrum for her five years of service. The new trustees on the Berne Public Library Board are Ted Boyrs, Lisa Raymond, and Missy Worden. They join President JoAnne Brady, Vice President Becky Waldenmaier, Treasurer Janet Adams, Secretary Marion Burghart, and Trustee Ellen Doolin. You are encouraged to voice your concerns and suggestions to any member of the Board in addition to the library staff. If you would rather send an email, contact Judy Petrosillo at director@bernepubliclibrary.org or JoAnne Brady at Bradyj@bernepubliclibrary.org. We welcome your input.

As we embrace the new year, we look back on 2015 to see how well the library served the community and how it can improve. Statistics do not tell the entire picture, but they do provide an idea of what the library offered. Check out these numbers: 12,548 books, 323 audiobooks and 1,253 videos are in the library; 15,341 items were checked out; 14,313 people walked in the door; 4,307 items were lent to other libraries; 4,134 items were borrowed from other libraries; 501 people attended 61 adult programs; 84 people attended 14 teen programs; 1,838 people attended 116 children programs; and, 424 people attended 20 family programs.

To discover the 2016 programs, look at the Berne Library column in the Altamont Enterprise, sign-up for our monthly e-newsletter, pick up a monthly newsletter at the library, or check out our website www.bernepubliclibrary.org. Some upcoming special programs include the following:

These photos will be judged by photography professionals and the public can vote for their favorites. The Friends will host a reception for winners and entrants on Saturday, February 27 @ 11 a.m.

Clean off those book shelves and bring your used books, audio books, CDs, and DVDs to the Berne Senior Center on Saturday, March 12 from 9-noon. At the same time go through your jewelry boxes and scarf collection to find items that you would like to donate to the sale. Then find some new-to-you items at the Book, Jewelry, and Scarves Sale on Saturday, March 19 from 9-4 and on Sunday, March 20 from 10-2.

In April the Friends, in cooperation with the BKW Art Department, will be sponsoring a Bowls for Books event. BKW students will be making ceramic bowls in art class. Proceeds will be used for the Summer Reading program.

The Friends meet the first Wednesday of every month at 7 p.m. in the Community Room and we welcome you to join us. All proceeds raised by the Friends support the Berne Library.
